2010 PROVINCIAL SAFETY AND SECURITY SUMMIT

The Department of Safety and Security of the 2010 FIFA World Cup Local Organizing Committee SA (LOC) in partnership with the KwaZulu-Natal Departments of Community Safety & Liaison, Sports and Recreation and other stakeholders, will be hosting the 2010 Safety and Security summit at the Durban Hilton Hotel from 25 to 26 July 2008.

The Summit is aimed at amongst other things, briefing provincial safety and security stakeholders on progress with regard to general preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup, outline the safety and security requirements for the 2010 FIFA World Cup, and to share information on the plans and programs of the various partners in the province and agree on mechanisms of how these can be aligned with initiatives of the Host Cities and the LOC. The summit is also expected to look at the general expectations of Foreign Fans that will be visiting South Africa during the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

A broad range of provincial stakeholders are expected to attend this summit, and these include representatives of the respective Host City, SAPS senior management, Disaster Management, Health and Emergency Services, relevant NGOs as well as Tourism and other sectors.

As media you are invited to cover the summit for its duration or any part thereof. A media briefing will be held on the first day of the summit, i.e. 25 July starting from 08h30.
