TWO PEOPLE KILLED ON KZN ROADS THIS WEEKEND

The KwaZulu-Natal MEC for Transport, Community Safety and Liaison Mr. Willies Mchunu urges road users to more cautious on the road, as human error was once again the main cause of loss of lives.

On Friday the 21st 2009 on N3 Brickfield off ramp, a minibus caught alight, all passengers managed to escape, no injuries were reported, and the cause of the accident is unknown. On Saturday on R614 Wartburg road near Umgeni Bridge, a Toyota Yaris lost control and went of the road, killing one person. On Sunday on N3 North Bound Key Bridge a Toyota conquest lost control and went down the embankment killing one person.
