KZN PREMEIR DR ZWELI MKHIZE AND MEC MCHUNU TO ATTEND MASS FUNERAL PINETOWN

KZN Premier Dr Zweli Mkhize and The MEC for Transport, Community Safety and Liaison Mr Willies Mchunu will attend the mass funeral of six people tomorrow Sunday (31 October 2010) who were brutally murdered in Ntshongweni last Saturday. The funeral will be held at Ndengezi Community Hall. The Premier and MEC Mchunu will be accompanied by the acting MEC for Social Development, Dr. Sdongiseni Dlomo.

MEC Mchunu has been very vocal in the recent past criticising the killings that are taking place in the province of KwaZulu Natal; however he has assured communities that police will not rest in their bid to bring perpetrators to book.

This funeral will be taking place immediately after another incident that shocked the people of Kwa Zulu Natal. Four people including a six month old infant was killed in Tshelimnyama in the Pinetown area. However Mchunu is pleased by commitment of all stakeholders to stand up and fight crime and to build a united front against crime against.
