MCHUNU SHOCKED AND SADDENED BY MSANE'S PASSING AWAY

MEC for Transport, Community Safety and Liaison, Mr. Willies Mchunu learnt with shock the news of passing away of Mr. Bheki Msane, who was once an uKhozi FM presenter.

According to reports Msane died in St Augustine Hospital in Durban after an accident happened in Durban last week.

Mchunu said Msane will be solely missed for his talent as one of the best presenters of our time.

"It is disturbing to learn that Msane is also the victim of a road crash. We send our condolences as the government of KwaZulu-Natal to his family and his supporters. In his memory we appeal to everyone to priorities road safety. As government we are saying one life lost on our roads is one to many. May his soul rest in peace," said Mchunu.

He also appealed to motorists to abide by traffic rules and be patient on the road as 2011 is declared a year of activism against road carnages and transgressions.
