MCHUNU INTERVENES IN CALMING CAMPERDOWN TENSIONS

KZN MEC for Transport, Community Safety and Liaison, Willies Mchunu will today (02-05-2011) lead a very important multi-political party meeting in Camperdown.

Mchunu accompanied by leaders of other political parties, the leadership of the police and the IEC, will engage with local leadership and election candidates under the Camperdown municipality.

The meeting seeks to harmonize and calm down tensions in the area after the recent killing of the NFP candidate.

The meeting is also expected to assess the situation in the province and develop mergers to intervene where cases of intimidation have been reported.

This multi-political party task team has been set up by the government of KwaZulu-Natal to ensure peace and stability before, during and after the local government elections.
