MEC MCHUNU TO COMMEMORATE ROAD ACCIDENT VICTIMS IN THE SOUTH COAST

MEC for Transport, Community Safety and Liaison Mr Willies Mchunu will on Sunday (14/10/2012) commemorate road accident victims in the South Coast.

The "Healing of the wounds" is the DOT initiative to go around the Province remembering all those road accident victims. The South Coast is the second region to be visited by the Department after the spate of accidents that has happened in the area.

This Remembrance Day is done in a form of worship and prayer accompanied by our Interfaith and religious leaders. The department will go around the province preaching the gospel of Road safety using the healing of the wounds as a vehicle to raise awareness to the communities and commemoration of the deceased.

Mchunu is expected to be accompanied by religious leaders, members of the KZN legislature, senior government officials, CRSC, RRTF and the community of the South Coast
