MEC WILLIES MCHUNU TO LEAD A MULTI PARTY DELEGATION TO ADDRESS INTOLERANCE AT UNIVERSITY OF ZULULAND

The MEC for Transport, Community Safety and Liaison is expected to lead a Multi-Party Oversight Committee delegation to the University of Zululand, Ongoye campus with the purpose of hosting a student's dialogue to address matters of a political nature that have been known to cause disruptions to the university's programmes.

This visit which has been arranged in partnership with the institution's management, will take place on Thursday, 23 August 2012.

The main purpose behind the visit will be to have a dialogue with the students about ushering in peace amongst different students formations and clarifying the roles that each must play in the fight against violent skirmishes and crime that is plaguing the institution.

It is also intended to create a culture of tolerance among students no matter their background. As such, incidents that have been widely reported concerning intolerance within the institution will be addressed as well.

Event details are as follows:

Date : 23 August 2012
Venue : Bhekuzulu Hall, University of Zululand, oNgoye
Time : 13h00

Ends
