MEC MCHUNU TO OFFICIALLY LAUNCH MASSIVE MULTI-MILLION RAND PUBLIC TRANSPORT INFRASTRUCTURE

The MEC for Transport, Community Safety and Liaison, Mr. Willies Mchunu will tomorrow (15 May 2012) officially open new 20 Public Transport Shelters in Mondlo (Vryheid).

This infrastructure project will benefit public transport users by providing them a shelter at a taxi rank. This multi-million rand initiative is in line with the Department of Transport's drive to improve road and transport infrastructure in the province.

The main objective of this facility is to provide decency and to protect public transport users in all-weather conditions whiles creating jobs to unemployed youth.

Mchunu will also announce a massive construction of Mondlo Public Transport Facility for integrated modes of public transport. This major infrastructure is the second phase construction and is going to be the biggest facility in the province for public transport.

MEC Mchunu is also going to join a walk for safety by the Vryheid local community against crime and police killings tomorrow morning. The walk will begin from Abaqulusi Municipality to iKhethelo sport ground.
