THE LAUNCH OF KWA-MASHU COMMUNITY CRIME PREVENTION ASSOCIATION

KWAZULU-NATAL Community Safety and Liaison Department is currently rolling out Crime Prevention Structures. The Department has successfully mobilised Independent Crime Prevention Organisations, previously referred to as vigilantes, into formal and legal organisations working within the law with police and Government to fight crime.

Last year these organisations were launched in Kwazulu-Natal Community Crime Prevention Association (KZNCCPA).

Several chapters of this KZNCCPA have been rolled out in various Districts of KwaZulu-Natal. On Saturday November 16, 2013, the people of KwaMashu will launch its own chapter, the KwaMashu Community Crime Prevention Association.

The launch will be preceded by anti-crime blitz which will take place at KwaMashu Railway Station. This will see a distribution of anti-crime pamphlets and engagement with the communities on issues relating to crime.

The blitz will be followed by the anti-crime march to section K Hall where the organization will be formally launched.

The full details of the event are as follows:
