MEC MCHUNU TO RALLY BOTH HIS DEPARTMENTS TO FIGHT SOCIAL ILLS

MEC for Transport, Community Safety and Liaison Mr. Willies Mchunu will on Sunday (16 November 2014) attend a community mobilisation event aimed at addressing social ills including crime as well as transport safety including road safety and peace and stability in the public transport industry.

MEC Mchunu will be supported by the UThukela District Municipality Mayor Cllr Mazibuko and Emnambithi Local Municipality mayor Cllr. Madlala as well as the Uniting Presbyterian Church in Southern Africa. Running with the theme of "Operation Vuselela Onembeza", the programme is aimed at creating societal consciousness on the collective responsibility that citizens must own up to rid communities of crime and to end the road carnage.

Mchunu will also be joined by community leaders, senior government officials from both departments of Transport as well as Community Safety and Liaison, religious leaders from various denominations, as well as the broader members of the Emnambithi community.
