MEC KAUNDA TOGETHER WITH KZN SANTACO TO LEAD PROVINCIAL PUBLIC TRANSPORT PRAYER TO PROMOTE PEACE AND STABILITY IN KWANONGOMA TAXI INDUSTRY

The MEC for Transport, Community Safety and Liaison, Mr. Mxolisi Kaunda, together with the KwaZulu-Natal South African Taxi Council (SANTACO) leadership will lead the Provincial Public Transport Prayer to promote peace and stability in the taxi industry in KwaNongoma.

As part of the ongoing October Transport Month's activities, Kaunda and the delegation including leaders of the Interfaith will lead a prayer to promote peace and stability in the public transport fraternity. This prayer also seeks divine intervention in reducing road crashes and fatalities and to sensitize road users to the importance of road safety in the province.

Kaunda will be accompanied by members of the Executive council, Local leadership, Traditional leaders, leaders and members of the Interfaith and other Transport stakeholders.

The details of the prayer are as follows:

DATE: 28 October 2017 (Saturday)
VENUE: LINDIZWE SPORTSFIELD (Kwa-Nongoma)
TIME: 09H00

Members of the media are invited to attend the event.

Ends.
