MEC NTULI TO LEAD HEALING OF THE WOUNDS PRAYER IN KWAXIMBA ON SUNDAY

The MEC for Transport, Community Safety and Liaison, Mr. Bheki Ntuli will on Sunday (27/10/2019) lead the Healing of the Wounds prayer for road crash victims KwaXimba outside Cato Ridge.

The prayer will be held in remembrance of many road crash victims who lost their lives on road crashes over the past years. This include the recent accident that claimed six (6) lives on the 20th of September 2019 and another one that claimed 20 lives in August 2017. Prior to the prayer, Ntuli together with Amakhosi, local leadership and members of the interfaith will lay wreaths at the accident scene in remembrance of all road crash victims who lost their lives in that area.

This prayer affords the department and its stakeholders to disseminate road safety knowledge and information to the community thereby enabling people to make informed decisions of how to keep themselves and their families' safe whilst utilizing provincial roads.
