MEC NTULI TO GIVE MARCHING ORDERS TO HEADS OF LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES IN PREPARATION FOR THE FESTIVE SEASON HOLIDAYS

The KwaZulu-Natal MEC for Transport, Community Safety and Liaison, Bheki Ntuli, will address heads of law enforcement agencies in preparation for the festive season.

The engagement by MEC Ntuli is part of ensuring an integrated working approach between various law enforcement agencies tasked with ensuring stability in the province. The meeting will also set deliverables as part of the festive period enforcement.

Last week, the provincial Justice Crime Prevention and Security Cluster (JCPS) approved a detailed Integrated Festive Season Security Plan, which will be at the centre of the deliberations.

The meeting will be attended by SAPS Provincial Commissioner, General Jula and his management, including cluster commanders. From the traffic enforcement side, the meeting will be attended by provincial, regional, station commanders and heads of municipal traffic.

Details of the meeting

Date : 27 November 2019
Time : 10h00
Venue: Westville Correctional Services

NB: media is invited to attend and the MEC and Provincial Commissioner will have a media briefing alongside the meeting.
