MEDIA RELEASE

30 June 2022

KWAZULU-NATAL DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORT TO LAUNCH A R80 MILLION ROAD IMPROVEMENT PROJECT TO REPOSITION KOKSTAD TOWN POST DEVASTATING FLOODS IN THE PROVINCE

As part of the provincial government's effort to restore infrastructure that was ravaged by floods, the KwaZulu-Natal Department of Transport will launch an R80 million road rehabilitation programme in the town of Kokstad.

The route is a strategic economic corridor that connects the town of Kokstad to other strategic economic hubs in the neighbouring provinces. The road will also serve as an essential link between the Kingdom of Lesotho and KwaZulu-Natal which is vital for regional development.

The programme will commence with the inspection of progress in the construction of the multimillion-rand upgrade of the N2 Kokstad intersection.

Details for the programme:

Date: 02 July 2022

Venue: Riverview Stadium – Kokstad

Time: 09h00

Ends./

Members of the media are invited to attend.
