

Durban Long Distance taxis up running from tomorrow after an engagement with Duma | Collective wisdom prevails as we Inspire Hope for a Better Future

Statement by the MEC for Transport and Human Settlements, Siboniso Duma

30 October 2024

Inkosi Mhlabunzima Maphumulo House: We wish to salute taxi operators for putting the interest of commuters on top of the agenda.

Following our engagements, the Durban Long Distance Association will resume their operations tomorrow morning.

We are demonstrating once again that through collective wisdom no challenge will remain unresolved.

As we indicated this morning, our doors remain open for engagements with taxi operators and key stakeholders to ensure the stability of the industry.

To this end, a meeting will be held tomorrow and attended by taxi operators, the Department, and other key role-players.

The stability of the taxi industry is in the interest of taxi operators, commuters, and the growth of the economy of this province.

Together, we must inspire Hope for a Better Future
