Inkosi Mhlabunzima Maphumulo House: The loss of five members of one family in one horrific accident left a gaping hole in our hearts

Since last Sunday, a day after a horrific accident, we have been interacting with the family and spending time with them.

Our focus was to ease the burden on their shoulders.

We were with them when they went to identify their loved ones at the mortuary.

Importantly, we have been interacting with the employer of Mr. Artwell Mthiya, who was the driver. He relayed our condolences to all categories of staff.

We worked together to co-ordinate the funeral.

This Sunday, we will join the family, friends, neighbors, colleagues and community members as we give the departed souls a dignified funeral.

Equally, our hearts are with the family of the truck driver who died in his tragic accident. The family is located in Mpumalanga Province.

May the departed souls rest in peace
