

Provincial Trainee Inspectors and successful assessment tests completed: The marking of 16 000 scripts to commence tomorrow until the 17th November 2025

Media and Public Statement by KwaZulu-Natal Department of Transport

10 November 2025

Inkosi Mhlabunzima Maphumulo House: We congratulate the 16 000 applicants who wrote the assessment test today.

There will be no assessment tomorrow as all selected candidates were tested.

The Acting Head of Department, Sma Ngubo, as mandated by the MEC for Transport and Human Settlements, Siboniso Duma, is currently seized with the overall co-ordination of this major recruitment drive.

The marking of 16 000 scripts will commence tomorrow until the 17th November 2025.

The Department will communicate with the successful applicants who will move to the next phases of recruitment which will involve the following:-

1. Verbal interviews.
2. Competency test.
3. Driving test conducted by inspectors
4. Medical assessment.

The next phase will take place in Durban at 10h00 after the morning peak hour.

The venue will be communicated to the successful applicants.

Critically, the MEC, Siboniso Duma, is encouraged by the show of unity as parents, relatives, friends and community members all rallied behind all applicants today.

Collectively, we displayed an unwavering commitment to part of building a prosperous KwaZulu-Natal.

Finally, we thank Msunduzi Traffic Department, residents, motorists and all other key stakeholders for working together to make it possible for the candidates.

We sincerely apologize to everyone who was inconvenienced today.

As we move forward, we are maximizing on the strength as we correct weaknesses.

Ends.

Issued by the KZN Department of Transport

Enquiries

Ndabezinhle Sibiya | 082 375 4742 | Spokesperson | MEC for Transport and Human Settlements