PROVINCIAL TRANSPORT MANAGEMENT (PTM) CIRCULAR NO 6 OF 2007: FINALISATION OF DISPOSAL OF STATE OWNED VEHICLES: PROVINCE OF KWAZULU-NATAL

1. Provincial Transport Management (PTM) Circular No 2 of 2007 regarding the disposal of State Owned vehicles, has reference.
2. As requested and agreed at the DTO Forum held on 19 April 2007, a workshop was arranged and held on 16th May 2007 with user Departments, to discuss the current procedures utilised by the Department of Transport for the disposal of State owned vehicles, in an effort to assist departments in their deliberations and decision making process on the disposal of their departmental Fleets.
3. In a final attempt to afford department's time to conclude their arrangements for disposal of their vehicles, the Department of Transport has undertaken to assist departments with facilitating a further two more auctions. Departments are therefore requested to identify vehicles for BOS within their fleets by 15 June 2007, and to advise the Fleet Services and Motor Transport Services of the identified vehicles. This information is required to assist the Fleet Services and Motor Transport Services in making the necessary arrangements for the auctions in question.
4. The following information of the vehicles identified for BOS, must be furnished, to enable the Fleet Services to arrange the collection thereof, and to advise user departments when their vehicles can be accommodated:
 - Vehicle licence number
 - Make and Model of vehicle
 - Name of Institution
 - Physical address where vehicle can be located
 - Contact details and name of person where vehicle located, (possibly the LTO)
5. Please ensure that vehicles are taken to the appropriate Fleet Services as and when they are ready to accept the vehicles on to their premises. Tabled below are the areas that each Fleet Services will accept vehicles from.
