

My Road Safety Promises

I promise...

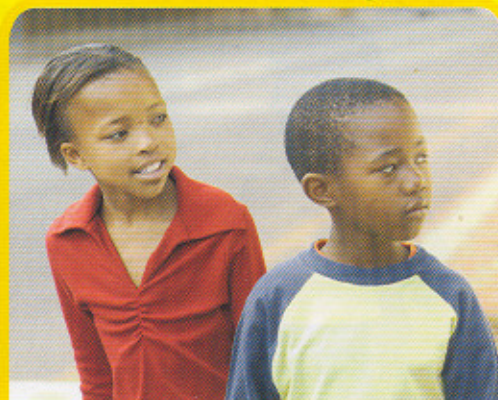

Sunday

... to remind my teacher to revise my road safety promises everyday.

Monday

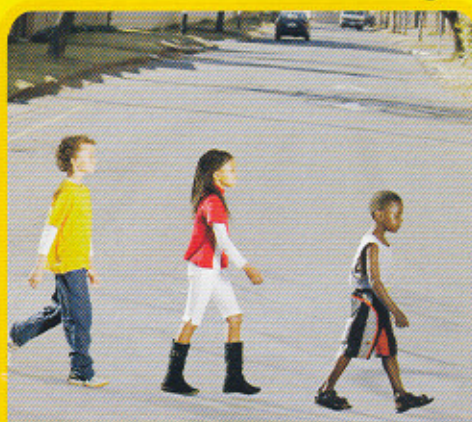

...when I cross the road to look RIGHT, look LEFT and look RIGHT again and cross only when it is safe to do so.

Tuesday

... to always cross at a pedestrian crossing or where it is safe to do so.

Wednesday

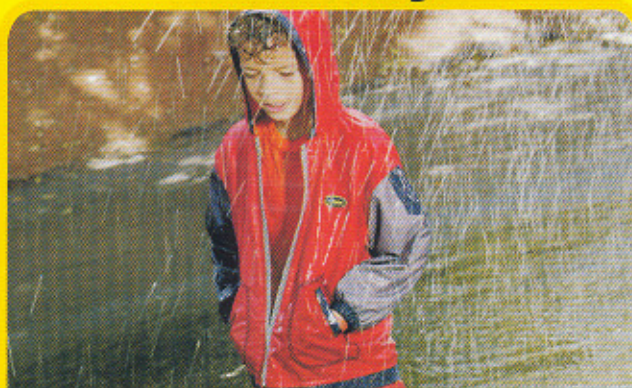

...never to run across the road, I might trip and fall.

Thursday

...to look and listen before I cross the road.

Friday

...to wear bright coloured clothing when walking on the road.

Saturday

...not to play on the road, I will only play where it is safe.
