

CROSS-BORDER ROAD TRANSPORT ACT NO. 4 OF 1998

[ASSENTED TO 26 MARCH, 1998]
[DATE OF COMMENCEMENT: 1 APRIL, 1998]

(English text signed by the President)

This Act has been updated to Government Gazette 31366 dated 27 August, 2008.

as amended by

Road Transport Appeal Matters Amendment Act, No. 70 of 1998
Transport Agencies General Laws Amendment Act, No. 42 of 2007
[with effect from 15 May, 2008]
Cross-Border Road Transport Amendment Act, No. 12 of 2008

ACT

To provide for co-operative and co-ordinated provision of advice, regulation, facilitation and law enforcement in respect of cross-border road transport by the public and private sectors; to that end, to provide for the establishment of the Cross-Border Road Transport Agency; to repeal certain laws; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

Preamble.—SINCE there is a need to improve the unimpeded flow by road of freight and passengers in the region, to liberalise market access progressively in respect of cross-border freight road transport, to introduce regulated competition in respect of cross-border passenger road transport and to reduce operational constraints for the cross-border road transport industry as a whole;

AND SINCE there is a need to enhance and strengthen the capacity of the public sector in support of its strategic planning, enabling and monitoring functions;

AND SINCE there is a commitment to empower the cross-border road transport industry to maximise business opportunities and to regulate themselves incrementally to improve safety, security, reliability, quality and efficiency of services;

[Definition of “vehicle” substituted by s. 2 (g) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

PART 2

ROAD TRANSPORT AGREEMENTS WITH OTHER STATES

2. Authorisation to conclude road transport agreements.—(1) The Minister may, subject to the provisions of the Constitution, enter into an agreement with another state whereby arrangements are made with that state to control and regulate cross-border road transport between the Republic and that state based on reciprocity, similar treatment and non-discrimination and where appropriate, extraterritorial jurisdiction.

(2) The agreement must also provide for—

- (a) its entry into force;
- (b) the procedure to be followed for amendment of the agreement;
- (c) the rights of the parties thereto in the event of substantial breach thereof;
- (d) the suspension of the agreement or of any relevant provision thereof; and
- (e) the procedure to be followed in the event of a dispute regarding the interpretation or application thereof.

(3) The agreement must be promulgated by the President by Proclamation in the Gazette and will have the force of law in the Republic with effect from the date of promulgation or any later date specified in the Proclamation.

(4) Any amendment of the agreement, if and to the extent approved by Parliament, must be promulgated in the same manner as mentioned in subsection (3) whereupon such amendment will have the force of law in the Republic.

(5) Where a state with which an agreement has been entered into breaches a substantial provision thereof the Minister must, subject to the provisions of the agreement—

- (a) inform the other state of such breach and request it to rectify such breach within a reasonable period;
- (b) upon failure of the state to act in accordance with the request as contemplated in paragraph (a), by notice in the Gazette, publish his or her intention to suspend the application of the agreement in part or in full; and

- (c) by notice in the Gazette, publish the date on which the suspension of the application of the agreement in part or in full will come into force.

3. Equal treatment.—(1) The Minister may, in the absence of an agreement between the Republic and another state to the contrary, when another state accords treatment to South African carriers which is less favourable than the treatment that is being accorded by the Republic to carriers from that state, by 30 days' notice in the Gazette—

- (a) despite any provision to the contrary in this Act, prohibit the Regulatory Committee from considering any application by a carrier of that state for the granting, renewal, transfer or amendment of any permit, including a permit that authorises cabotage, to undertake cross-border road transport to or from any place or area or between places or areas specified in the notice; and
- (b) despite any provision to the contrary in this Act or the permit concerned, prohibit a carrier of that state who holds a permit to undertake cross-border road transport to or from any place or area or between places or areas specified in the notice.

(2) The Minister may at any time amend or withdraw a notice referred to in subsection (1) by notice in the Gazette.

PART 3 CROSS-BORDER ROAD TRANSPORT AGENCY

4. Establishment of Agency.—(1) A juristic person, known as the Cross-Border Road Transport Agency, is hereby established.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Agency is capable in law of instituting, defending or opposing legal proceedings of whatever nature, of purchasing or otherwise acquiring, holding and alienating or otherwise disposing of movable or immovable property or any other real right or interest, of entering into contracts or doing such other things as juristic persons may by law perform and do.

(3) The Agency may perform all such acts and do such things as are reasonably necessary for or ancillary, incidental or supplementary to the performance of its advisory, regulatory, facilitatory and law enforcement functions as contemplated in this Act.

5. Representation by Board.—(1) The Agency must be governed and represented by its Board.

(2) The Minister must, after consulting with the relevant stake-holders, appoint the members of the Board consisting of—

- (a) the Chairperson, who is fit on account of his or her profile and expertise in the cross-border road transport industry and is not employed by the State;
- (b) the Deputy Chairperson, who is fit on account of his or her profile and expertise in the cross-border road transport industry and is not employed by the State;

[Para. (b) amended by s. 1 (a) of Act No. 42 of 2007.]

Wording of Sections

- (bA) the Chief Executive Officer, by virtue of holding that office;
- (bB) if the Minister specifies an office in the Department for the purposes of this subsection, the person for the time being holding that office; and [Paras. (bA) and (bB) inserted by s. 1 (a) of Act No. 42 of 2007.]

- (c) not more than eight other members, of whom not more than—
- (i) two must be appointed on account of their expertise in cross-border road transport of freight; and
 - (ii) two must be appointed on account of their expertise in cross-border road transport of passengers.

[Para. (c) substituted by s. 1 (b) of Act No. 42 of 2007.]

Wording of Sections

(3) (a) The members of the Board contemplated in subsection (2) (c) (i) and (ii) must not be persons who are employed by the State.

(b) The members of the Board contemplated in subsection (2) (bA) and (bB) do not have voting rights.

(c) Before the members of the Board contemplated in subsection (2) (a), (b) or (c) are appointed, the Minister must, through the media, invite nominations from members of the public of persons with an interest in and knowledge of the cross-border road transport industry or the labour and consumer sector.

(d) Subject to subsection (2) (c) (i) and (ii), the Board must include members who—

- (a) have legal knowledge and the relevant expertise in corporate governance, including financial management; or
- (b) are knowledgeable about the cross-border road transport industry, including labour and consumer matters.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 1 (c) of Act No. 42 of 2007.]

Wording of Sections

(4) The Minister may nominate a representative to participate in a non-voting capacity in the deliberations of any meeting of the Regulatory Committee.

[Sub-s. (4) substituted by s. 1 (d) of Act No. 42 of 2007.]

Wording of Sections

6. Disqualifications.—No person may be appointed as a member of the Board if that person—

- (a) is a minor;
- (b) is of unsound mind;
- (c) is an unrehabilitated insolvent; or
- (d) has been convicted of an offence and sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine unless the Minister is of the opinion that the said person is fit to serve as a member of the Board taking into account the nature of the offence and all the relevant circumstances relating to that offence.

7. Period of office of Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson and other members.—(1) The Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson are appointed by the Minister for a period not exceeding three years.

(2) (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c), the other members of the Board are appointed for a period not exceeding three years.

(b) One half of the members of the Board, referred to in section 5(2)(c), must vacate their offices every 18 months.

(c) For the purposes of paragraph (b), such four of the eight members of the Board appointed to the first Board constituted after the commencement of this Act, must be determined in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 1 and must vacate their offices upon the expiry of a period of 18 months as from the date of their appointment, whereas the four remaining members of the Board must vacate their offices 18 months later.

(3) The members of the Board, including the Chairperson and the Deputy Chairperson, are eligible for re-appointment for a further period not exceeding three years.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 2 (a) of Act No. 42 of 2007.]

Wording of Sections

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1), (2) and (3), the Minister may extend the term of office of any member of the Board by such further period as it may take to appoint a new member to the Board.

[Sub-s. (4) added by s. 2 (b) of Act No. 42 of 2007.]

8. Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson.—(1) The Deputy Chairperson acts as Chairperson of the Board whenever the Chairperson is for any reason unable to act as such.

(2) Whenever both the Chairperson and the Deputy Chairperson of the Board are absent or unable to fulfil any of the functions of the Chairperson, the members of the Board designate any other member of the Board to act as Chairperson of the Board during such absence or incapacity.

9. Alternate members.—(1) (a) The Minister may, subject to the provisions of subsection (2), at the request of a member of the Board appoint an alternate member for that member.

(b) When a member of the Board is absent from a meeting the alternate member concerned may attend the meeting, and when so attending, the alternate member is deemed to be a member of the Board.

(2) No alternate member is appointed for the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson or a member referred to in section 5 (2) (c) (i) and (ii).

10. Notice of appointment.—The Minister must, with 30 days from the date of appointment of a member or alternate member of the Board, notify Parliament of such appointment and publish a notice in the Gazette.

[S. 10 substituted by s. 3 of Act No. 42 of 2007.]

Wording of Sections

11. Vacation of, and removal from, office.—(1) A member of the Board vacates his or her office if that member—

(a) becomes subject to any of the disqualifications for appointment referred to in section 6; or

(b) dies or is removed from office under subsection (2) or resigns by notice in writing to the Minister.

(2) The Minister may remove from office any member of the Board—

(a) who has failed to comply with any condition of his or her appointment;

(b) who has been guilty of improper conduct or has neglected his or her duties as a member of the Board;

(c) who is unable to perform his or her duties efficiently as a member of the Board; or

(d) if he or she is absent from two consecutive Board meetings without consent of the Chairperson or the Board or without proper cause.

12. Conditions of service of members or alternate members of Board.—Members and alternate members of the Board are appointed on the conditions of service, including the payment of remuneration and allowances determined by the Minister in consultation with the Minister of Finance.

13. Regulatory Committee.—A Regulatory Committee is hereby established comprising—

- (a) the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson of the Board, who also serve as Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson of the Regulatory Committee;
- (b) the four members referred to in section 5 (2) (c) (i) and (ii); and
- (c) the Chief Executive Officer referred to in section 14 (1) (a).

14. Staff of Agency.—(1) (a) The Minister must, after consideration of the recommendation of the Board, appoint a Chief Executive Officer.

(b) The Chief Executive Officer holds office on such terms and conditions including those relating to remuneration and allowances as the Minister, after considering the recommendations of the Board and in consultation with the Minister of Finance, may determine in writing.

(c) The Chief Executive Officer holds office for a period not exceeding five years as specified in the letter of appointment and is eligible for reappointment.

(d) The Chief Executive Officer manages the Agency subject to the control and directions of the Board.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer must, subject to the approval of the Board, appoint such other staff as may be necessary to provide the required administrative, secretarial, research and technical assistance to the Agency and the Board.

(3) The staff of the Agency receives such remuneration, allowances and other employment benefits as the Board may determine in consultation with the Minister and the Minister of Finance.

[S. 14 substituted by s. 4 of Act No. 42 of 2007.]

Wording of Sections

15. Appointment of experts.—(1) The Board may appoint experts, including experts from other states, with a view to assisting the Board in the execution of its functions.

(2) The terms, conditions, remuneration and allowances applicable in respect of any expert by virtue of his or her appointment in terms of subsection (1), and the work to be performed or service to be rendered by virtue of such appointment, must be determined in a written agreement entered into for that purpose between the Board and the expert concerned.

16. Meetings and decisions.—(1) The first meeting of the Board must be held at the time and place determined by the Minister, and thereafter meetings are held at the times and places determined by the Chairperson of the Board.

(2) The Board must meet at least four times per year.

(3) The Board must determine the time and place for the first meeting of the Regulatory Committee.

(4) The Board must devise the procedures for its meetings and decisions and those of the Regulatory Committee: Provided that a quorum for a meeting—

- (a) of the Board is fifty percent of the appointed members as provided for in section 5 (2); and

- (b) of the Regulatory Committee is fifty percent of the members of the Committee as provided for in section 13.

(5) No decision of the Board is invalid by reason only of the fact that, when such decision was taken, a casual vacancy existed on the Board or a person was disqualified under section 6 from being a member, whether or not such person's concurrence was necessary for the taking of that decision.

17. Procedures.—(1) The Board or the Regulatory Committee, as the case may be, may, for the purpose of dealing with any matter before it in terms of this Act—

- (a) allow any person affected by or interested in such matter, or the duly authorised representative of such a person, to appear before it and—
 - (i) to give evidence or make oral representations relevant to such matter;
 - (ii) to call witnesses and lead evidence on any question relevant to such matter; or
 - (iii) to question any person who testified as a witness in such matter;
- (b) by a prescribed notice served in the prescribed manner by an authorised officer or sheriff, summon any person to appear before it at a specified time and at a specified place to give evidence in connection with any matter which may be reasonably necessary to the meeting or to produce any book, plan or other document or article in his or her possession or under his or her control which may be reasonably necessary to the meeting;
- (c) call upon any person present in or at the place where such matter is dealt with by it, to appear before it to give evidence in connection with any matter which may be reasonably necessary to the meeting or to produce any book, plan or other document or article in the possession or under the control of that person which may be reasonably necessary to the meeting;
- (d) question any person appearing before it as a witness; or
- (e) refuse to hear any person appearing before it as a witness who refuses to be sworn in or to be affirmed.

(2) If a person summoned under subsection (1) fails to appear at a meeting of the Board or Regulatory Committee, as the case may be, or fails to remain in attendance at such meeting, such person is guilty of an offence.

(3) Any person called upon to give evidence under this section may be assisted by counsel, an attorney or an agent.

(4) (a) Where any person gives evidence in terms of this section and is obliged to answer questions which may incriminate him or her, where he or she is to be tried in a criminal trial, the person presiding at the meeting must order that such part of the proceedings be held in camera and that no information regarding such information may be published in any manner.

(b) No evidence regarding any questions and answers, as contemplated in paragraph (a), is admissible in any criminal proceedings, except in criminal proceedings where the person stands trial on a charge relating to the administering of an oath or the administering of an affirmation or the giving of false evidence or the making of a false statement in connection with such questions and answers, and in criminal proceedings relating to a failure to answer lawful questions fully and satisfactorily.

(c) Any person who contravenes any provisions of an order made in terms of paragraph (a), is guilty of an offence and on conviction liable to the penalty mentioned in subsection (5) of section

154 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977).

(5) Any self-incriminating evidence obtained during the course of any questioning as contemplated under subsection (1) must not be used in criminal or civil proceedings which may result from the meeting.

(6) The person presiding at the meeting at which any person appears as a witness as contemplated in subsection (1), may administer an oath or affirmation to the person appearing at the meeting.

18. Financing of Agency.—(1) The Agency must finance its operating and capital costs from—

- (a) money levied in connection with—
 - (i) the application and issuing of any permit; or
 - (ii) subject to the provisions of this Act, the dissemination of any useful information, advice or research findings;
- (b) money collected from the imposition of fines in terms of this Act;
- (c) donations; and
- (d) money appropriated by Parliament from time to time for that purpose.

(2) The Agency must utilise any money contemplated in subsection (1) in accordance with the statement of estimated expenditure referred to in subsection (3).

(3) The Agency—

- (a) must in each financial year, at a time determined by the Minister, submit a statement of estimated income and expenditure in respect of its objectives and functions for the following financial year to the Minister and to the Minister of Finance for their approval; and
- (b) may in any financial year submit adjusted statements of estimated income and expenditure to the Minister and the Minister of Finance for their approval.

19. Bookkeeping and auditing.—(1) The Agency must, in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice, keep such accounting and related records as are necessary to represent the state of affairs and business of the Agency fairly and to explain its transactions and financial position.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer is the accounting officer of the Agency and charged with the responsibility of accounting for all money received and payments made by the Agency.

(3) The accounting and related records of the Agency must be audited annually by the Auditor-General.

20. Banking account.—The Agency must open and maintain one or more accounts with a bank registered finally as a bank in terms of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990), in which there must be deposited the money received by the Agency and from which payments for it or on its behalf must be made.

21. Financial year.—The financial year of the Agency must run from 1 July to 30 June of the following year.

22. Reporting.—(1) The Board must report to—

- (a) the Minister at least once every year on its activities, including its audited and approved financial statements in respect of all its business; and

- (b) the Tribunal at least once a year on matters of mutual interest and, as the need arises, notify the Tribunal of problems which require its co-operation and co-ordination to resolve.

(2) The Minister must table such report in Parliament within a reasonable time.

(3) Where the Chief Executive Officer exercises a power delegated under section 32, he or she must report to the Regulatory Committee on a quarterly basis in respect of the permits issued by him or her.

(4) The Regulatory Committee must submit quarterly reports to the Board providing information on the permits issued in the preceding quarter, and this must include information on any permit issued by the Chief Executive Officer by virtue of section 32.

22A. Performance agreement.—(1) The Minister and the Agency must enter into a written performance agreement relating to—

- (a) the State's requirements in respect of the Agency's scope of business, efficiency and financial performance, and achievement of objectives;
- (b) the principles to be followed by the Agency for the purposes of business planning;
- (c) such measures as may be necessary to protect the financial soundness of the Agency;
- (d) the principles to be followed at the end of a financial year in respect of any surplus in the accounts of the Agency; and
- (e) any other matter relating to the performance of the Agency's functions under this Act.

(2) The Minister and the Agency may in writing amend the performance agreement from time to time.

(3) The Minister must publish the performance agreement in the Gazette and any amendment thereto must be so published at least 30 days prior to that amendment coming into operation.

(4) A copy of the performance agreement must be open to inspection by the public at the head office of the Agency during business hours.

(5) The Minister and the Agency must, before the finalisation of the performance agreement or amendment thereof, on any matter that may affect them, consult with the relevant stakeholders in the cross-border transport industry.

[S. 22A inserted by s. 5 of Act No. 42 of 2007.]

PART 4 SCOPE AND FUNCTIONS OF BOARD

23. Functions of Board.—The Board must—

- (a) advise the Minister on any aspect related to cross-border road transport policy;
- (b) regulate access to the market by the road transport freight and passenger industry in respect of cross-border road transport and cabotage by issuing permits;

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 3 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

- (c) facilitate—
 - (i) the establishment of co-operative and consultative relationships and structures between public and private sector institutions with an interest in cross-border road transport;

- (ii) the collection, processing and dissemination of relevant information;
 - (iii) the provision of training, capacity building and the promotion of entrepreneurship generally and, in particular, in respect of small, medium and micro-enterprises with an interest in cross-border road transport; and
- (d) undertake road transport law enforcement in terms of the Act.

PART 5 ADVISORY FUNCTIONS OF BOARD

24. Advisory functions.—(1) The Board must advise the Minister, as the need arises or upon request of the Minister, on cross-border road transport policy matters, including strategies to counteract restrictive measures implemented by other states, the phasing in of measures to liberalise market access, strategies to reduce operational constraints, training needs and the contributory role of cross-border road transport in fulfilling the objective of integrated transport planning.

(2) The Board must advise and provide information to the Minister and the Department in the negotiation and renegotiation of cross-border road transport agreements contemplated in section 2 (1) and executive arrangements contemplated in section 25 (4).

PART 6 REGULATORY FUNCTIONS OF BOARD

25. Permit application.—(1) No person may undertake cross-border road transport or, subject to section 31, cabotage, unless he or she is the holder of a permit.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 4 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(2) A South African carrier must, where an agreement referred to in section 2 (1) exists and provides for extraterritorial jurisdiction, apply, in accordance with the provisions of the agreement and the regulations, to the Regulatory Committee for a permit authorising road transport from the territory of the Republic into or across the territory of any state with which the Republic has concluded such an agreement and from such territory back to the Republic.

(3) A foreign carrier must, where an agreement referred to in section 2 (1) exists and provides for extraterritorial jurisdiction, apply, in accordance with the provisions of the agreement and the regulations, to his or her competent authority for a permit authorising road transport from the territory of the state concerned into or across the territory of the Republic and from the territory of the Republic back to the territory of such state: Provided that the Regulatory Committee must, where required in terms of the provisions of such an agreement, consider the application of such foreign carriers and recommend to the competent authority whether or not to issue the carriers concerned with a permit.

(4) A South African carrier and a foreign carrier must, where an agreement referred to in section 2 (1) exists but does not provide for extraterritorial jurisdiction or where the Minister has concluded an executive arrangement with a minister of another state in anticipation of concluding an agreement referred to in section 2 (1), apply, in accordance with the provisions of the agreement and the regulations or the provisions of the executive arrangement, to the Regulatory Committee for a permit authorising the part of the road transport undertaken in the territory of the Republic.

(5) A South African carrier and a foreign carrier must, where no agreement referred to in section 2 (1) exists, apply to the Regulatory Committee for a permit authorising the part of the road transport undertaken in the territory of the Republic.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), if more than one permit is issued in respect of the same vehicle, the holder of the permit must be the same person.

(7) Where a person, other than the holder of an existing permit applies for a permit in respect of the same vehicle, the Regulatory Committee must—

- (a) inform the existing permit-holder that an application in respect of the same vehicle has been received;
- (b) request the existing permit-holder to provide reasons within 14 days as to why the existing permit must not be cancelled; and
- (c) inform the existing permit-holder of and request his or her attendance on the date when the application will be considered by it.

(8) If the existing permit-holder fails to respond to a request as contemplated in paragraph (b) or (c), the Regulatory Committee may cancel the existing permit.

(9) If the existing permit-holder's permit is cancelled in accordance with subsection (8), the said permit-holder must return the cancelled permit to the Chief Executive Officer within 21 days.

(10) The Regulatory Committee may grant condonation for the permit-holder's failure to comply with the requests as contemplated in paragraph (b) or (c) upon good cause shown.

26. Temporary permits.—(1) The Regulatory Committee must take the following into consideration in making its decision, in relation to any application for the granting of a temporary permit, based on the information presented to it by the applicant:

- (a) the state of registration of the vehicle;
- (b) the type of vehicle;
- (c) the type of goods or the number of passengers to be transported;
- (d) the existence of reasonable transport facilities by means of which goods or passengers can be transported; and
- (e) any other factor or circumstance which, in the opinion of the Regulatory Committee, must be considered with a view to the safety of the public.

(2) Where an application is granted, the Regulatory Committee may issue a permit subject to such conditions or requirements as it may deem necessary.

(3) The Regulatory Committee, upon receipt of an application for a temporary permit, may if it is of the opinion that the carrier is providing a service of a permanent nature, request such carrier to apply for a permanent cross-border road transport permit.

27. Freight transport.—(1) The Regulatory Committee must take the following into consideration in making a decision in relation to any application for the granting, renewal or amendment of permits for cross-border freight road transport based on the information presented to it by the Chief Executive Officer:

- (a) whether the applicant and the vehicle comply with the relevant provisions of the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 (Act No. 93 of 1996);

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 5 (b) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

- (b) whether the applicant has a good road transport law enforcement profile based on the information contained in the points demerit system, referred to in section 45;
- (c) whether the applicant has forwarded the completed consignment notes, as prescribed, in respect of the previous permits which were held by the applicant;
- (d) a foreign state's track record with regard to reciprocity where the applicant is from a state with which South Africa does not have an agreement providing for permits with extraterritorial jurisdiction;
- (e) in the case of an application for a cabotage permit, the following considerations:
 - (i) the foreign state's track record on granting cabotage permits to South African carriers;
 - (ii) whether a South African carrier is able to provide a similar service;
- (eA) whether a South African carrier has submitted a valid tax clearance certificate from the South African Revenue Services indicating that the applicant's tax affairs are in order;

[Para. (eA) inserted by s. 5 (c) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]
- (eB) any conditions, factors or criteria specified in a relevant agreement contemplated in section 2 or specified or determined by a joint committee or similar body in terms of such an agreement;

[Para. (eB) inserted by s. 5 (c) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]
- (f) any other factor which, in the opinion of the Chief Executive Officer, must be considered.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 5 (a) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(1A) Where the applicant is a South African carrier the Board must take into account—

- (a) the promotion of small business;
- (b) the empowerment of persons historically disadvantaged by unfair discrimination; and
- (c) any relevant code of good practice or transformation charter published in terms of the Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment Act, 2003 (Act No. 53 of 2003).

[Sub-s. (1A) inserted by s. 5 (d) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

(2) Where an application is granted, the Regulatory Committee may issue a permit subject to such conditions or requirements as it may deem necessary.

(3) In the case of a combination of vehicles, a single permit must be issued for the truck-tractor and its trailers and semi-trailers, but not in the case of cabotage, where separate permits must be issued in accordance with section 31 (3).

[Sub-s. (3) added by s. 5 (e) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

28. Passenger transport.—(1) The Regulatory Committee must take the following into consideration in making its decision in relation to any application for the granting, renewal or amendment of permits for cross-border passenger road transport based on the information presented to it by the Chief Executive Officer:

- (a) the considerations referred to in section 27 (1) (a), (b), (d), (e), (eA) and (eB) and (1A);

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 6 (b) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

- (b) whether the applicant has forwarded the completed passenger lists, as prescribed, in respect of the previous permits which were held by the applicant;
 - (c) the need for the particular service, taking into account the available transport facilities;
 - (d) whether the applicant operates from the address furnished by him or her;
 - (e) the ability of the applicant to provide the particular service safely and effectively;
- [Para. (e) substituted by s. 6 (c) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

- (f) having regard to the circumstances, whether it will be expedient in the public interest to grant him or her the permit; and
- (g) any other factor which, in the opinion of the Chief Executive Officer, must be considered.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 6 (a) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(2) The onus rests on the applicant to prove paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of subsection (1).

(3) Where an application is granted, the Regulatory Committee may issue a permit subject to such conditions or requirements as it may deem necessary.

29. Temporary replacement of vehicle.—(1) In the event of a breakdown en route, a driver must be allowed to complete the specific journey with another vehicle on the authority of the permit issued to the vehicle which had broken down.

(2) The driver must make a sworn declaration regarding the nature of the breakdown, and where the broken-down vehicle can be inspected: Provided that the sworn declaration must be carried on the replacement vehicle.

(3) The permit-holder or the driver must allow any road transport inspector to inspect the broken down vehicle at the place where the latter vehicle is.

30. Withdrawal, suspension or variation of permit.—(1) The Regulatory Committee may, subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) where—

- (a) a permit holder or a person in his or her employ has been convicted of a road transport or road traffic offence in the Republic or in a state with which an agreement as contemplated in section 2 (1), has been concluded;
- (b) in the opinion of the Regulatory Committee, a permit holder has not complied with the conditions of the permit; or
- (c) a permit holder has ceased to operate the services or a part of such services authorised by the permit, of its own accord or upon a request from the state with which such an agreement has been concluded, take one or more of the following steps:

- (i) withdraw or suspend for such period as it may deem fit, any permit granted by it subject to such conditions as may be imposed;
- (ii) declare such permit-holder either permanently or for a specified period of time unfit to apply for a permit;
- (iii) amend the conditions and requirements applicable to the permit held by the permit-holder, or determine such new conditions and requirements as the Regulatory Committee may deem fit.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 7 (a) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(2) The Regulatory Committee must inform the permit-holder of the nature of and the reasons for the steps to be taken by it against him or her in terms of subsection (1), by delivering such notice personally or by registered post to the permit-holder.

(3) The permit-holder must, upon receiving the notice as contemplated in subsection (2), be entitled to a hearing by the Regulatory Committee if he or she lodges a written request with the Committee by registered post or by delivering such request by hand within:

- (a) ten days of such notice being mailed if such notice was dispatched by registered post; or
- (b) seven days of such notice being received by hand.

(4) The Regulatory Committee may grant condonation for the permit-holder's failure to comply with the request as contemplated in subsection (3) upon good cause shown.

(5) In taking any step under subsection (1), the Regulatory Committee must take into consideration all previous traffic or transport-related contraventions by the permit-holder concerned or by a person in his or her employ.

(6) Where a permit is affected by any step under subsection (1), and upon failure by the permit-holder to act under subsection (3), the permit-holder must return the permit within ten days after the lapsing of the period referred to in subsection (3) to the Chief Executive Officer.

(7) Where the Regulatory Committee decides to follow any of the steps in subsection (1), the Regulatory Committee must notify the permit holder of the right to appeal in terms of section 34 and of the right to request reasons.

[Sub-s. (7) added by s. 7 (b) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

31. Cabotage.—(1) Cabotage is prohibited, except as specifically allowed in subsection (2).

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 8 (a) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(2) The Regulatory Committee must give effect to the prohibition on cabotage, but may consider lifting the prohibition on cabotage and issue an appropriate permit in a case where—

- (a) the state of a foreign applicant accords a South African carrier equal treatment in this regard; or
- (b) it is satisfied that—
 - (i) there is no South African carrier who can provide a similar service;
 - (ii) the granting of the permit will not be in conflict with transport plans prepared in terms of Part 7 of the National Land Transport Transition Act, 2000 (Act No. 22 of 2000); and
 - (iii) lifting the prohibition is in the best interest of the Republic.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 8 (b) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(3) Where cabotage is permitted, any truck-tractor and trailer and semi-trailer used in combination for the purposes of such transport, may be registered in different countries, but a separate permit is required for each such truck-tractor, trailer and semi-trailer.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 8 (c) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(4) All existing cabotage permits held by foreign carriers will lapse within six months after the entry into force of this section of this Act: Provided that the holder of such cabotage permit may reapply in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2).

32. Delegation of powers.—The Regulatory Committee may delegate powers to the Chief Executive Officer, or any other member of staff, in writing, to—

(a) consider applications, in accordance with the prescribed procedure, for the granting, renewal or amendment of—

(i) permits for 14 days or three months to South African carriers who wish to undertake cross-border freight road transport in terms of an agreement referred to in section 2 (1) which provides for extraterritorial jurisdiction and who have not transgressed a prescribed points demerit threshold;

(ii) permits for a maximum of 14 days to South African carriers who wish to undertake cross-border passenger road transport in terms of an agreement referred to in section 2 (1) which provides for extraterritorial jurisdiction and who have not transgressed a prescribed points demerit threshold;

[Sub-par. (ii) amended by s. 9 (b) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(iii) cabotage permits for a maximum of 14 days to foreign carriers who have not transgressed a prescribed points demerit threshold;

[Sub-par. (iii) added by s. 9 (c) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

(iv) permits for a maximum of three months where the application relates to the transporting of passengers who are employees, workers, contractors or agents of the applicant being transported in the course of the applicant's industry, trade or business; and

[Para. (a) amended by s. 9 (a) of Act No. 12 of 2008. Sub-par. (iv) added by s. 9 (c) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(b) issue permits referred to in paragraph (a) subject to such conditions or requirements as may be deemed necessary where the application is granted.

33. Publication.—(1) The Regulatory Committee must, before considering any application for the granting or amendment of a permit authorising cabotage or for the granting or amendment of a permit for cross-border passenger road transport, except where the application relates to passengers who are employees, workers, contractors or agents of the applicant being transported in the course of the applicant's industry, trade or business, publish in the Gazette the particulars of any application as may be prescribed and invite any person to make representations in the manner and within the time prescribed, in respect of such application, except where the agreement provides otherwise and subject to subsections (1A) and (2).

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 10 (a) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(1A) The Regulatory Committee may publish in the same manner an application for renewal of a permit contemplated in subsection (1), and must do so if the conditions or requirements of the permit are to be amended in the process.

[Sub-s. (1A) inserted by s. 10 (b) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

(2) No representations made by a foreign carrier pursuant to a publication in terms of paragraph (a) will be taken into account unless South African carriers are afforded an opportunity to make representations, after a similar publication procedure, as referred to in subsection (1), in the state where the foreign carrier is registered.

(3) The Minister may, in consultation with the Regulatory Committee and the relevant stake-holders, extend the publication procedure to freight transport.

34. Appeals.—(1) Where the Regulatory Committee has published or otherwise made known its decision in respect of any application for the granting, renewal or amendment of a cross-border road transport permit or a cabotage permit for freight or passengers—

- (a) the applicant, if aggrieved thereby;
- (b) any other holder of such a permit who is affected by the decision; or
- (c) any person otherwise interested in or affected by the decision, may, in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed period after the decision was published or otherwise made known by the Regulatory Committee, appeal against that decision, subject to section 53 (1) (b).

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 11 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(2) An appeal brought in terms of subsection (1), must be lodged with and will be heard and determined by—

- (a) the Tribunal, if noted on or after a date determined for that purpose by the Minister by notice in the Gazette, which the Minister is hereby authorised to do;
- (b) the National Transport Commission contemplated in section 53 (2) (a), if noted before that date.

[S. 34 substituted by s. 1 of Act No. 70 of 1998.]

Wording of Sections

PART 7 FACILITATORY FUNCTIONS OF BOARD

35. Facilitatory functions.—(1) The Board must assist in the establishment and development of corridor-based and route-based co-operative and consultative relationships and structures based on co-operation between stake-holders and government, which may include adequate representation by—

- (a) transport authorities;
- (b) cross-border road transport carriers;
- (c) customs and excise authorities;
- (d) freight forwarding and clearing agents;
- (e) financial and insurance institutions;
- (f) trade and industry authorities and bodies;
- (g) border post authorities;
- (h) immigration authorities;

- (i) tourism groups;
[Para. (i) amended by s. 12 (a) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

- (j) provincial and local authorities; and [Para. (j) substituted by s. 12 (b) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

- (k) any other designated stakeholder.
[Para. (k) added by s. 12 (c) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

(2) The Minister may, upon request of the Board and in support of the development of the relationship referred to in subsection (1) prescribe guidelines for the establishment of cross-border road transport corridor-based or route-based consultative mechanisms.

(3) The Board must, in support of its functions, develop and maintain a cross-border road transport information database containing information obtained from any appropriate source, and devise the most appropriate ways to disseminate cross-border road transport information.

(4) The Minister must prescribe the type of information to be included in the database, who may access such information and the procedures to access the information.

(5) The Board must regularly assess its capacity and training needs and those of the Road Transport Inspectorate referred to in section 37 with a view to enhancing the performance of their functions.

(6) (a) The Board may assess the capacity and training needs of the small business undertakings engaged in cross-border road transport and encourage development in this regard, if necessary.

(b) The Board must devise and implement strategies to encourage the cross-border road transport industry to become more self-regulatory.

(7) The Board may co-operate with any other appropriate foreign institution or entity to facilitate training and capacity building with a view to promoting the unimpeded flow of cross-border road transport.

36. Consultation.—(1) The Chief Executive Officer must in support of the execution of the Board's functions, consult upon request of the Board or as the need arises with any relevant international, national and provincial authorities and relevant stake-holders, including the labour and consumer sector, and develop and maintain appropriate stakeholder consultative networks and establish appropriate stakeholder consultative forums.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Chief Executive Officer must establish a stakeholder consultative forum which includes appropriate representation from, amongst others—

- (a) the Department of Foreign Affairs;
- (b) the Department of Home Affairs;
- (c) the Department of Trade and Industry;
- (d) the South African Revenue Service; and
- (e) the Department of Environmental Affairs and Tourism.

(3) The Chief Executive Officer must report to the Board on a quarterly basis or as the need arises on any consultation undertaken.

PART 8
LAW ENFORCEMENT

37. Road Transport Inspectorate.—(1) (a) The Chief Executive Officer must appoint the national Road Transport Inspectorate, consisting of the national road transport inspectors.

(b) Section 14 (3) applies to national road transport inspectors appointed in terms of paragraph (a).

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 13 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(2) The Road Transport Inspectorate must exercise its duties and powers under the control of the Board and subject to its prescriptions and instructions.

(3) The Minister may enter into an arrangement with any other Minister in terms of which officials in the department of the latter Minister may perform certain duties or functions on behalf of the Road Transport Inspectorate.

38. Powers of national road transport inspector.—(1) A road transport inspector may—

- (a) cause a vehicle to stop in the manner prescribed;
- (b) question the driver or a passenger of the vehicle which was stopped under subsection (1) in the prescribed manner;
- (c) direct the driver or a passenger of the vehicle which was stopped under subsection (1) to produce any prescribed document in the prescribed manner;
- (d) confiscate a permit which has been specified in a written order issued by the Regulatory Committee;
- (e) confiscate a permit which authorises cross-border road transport or cabotage if the vehicle is so defective as to be a possible danger to persons or property and must hand over the permit to the Chief Executive Officer;

[Para. (e) substituted by s. 14 (a) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

- (f) request the driver or a person in charge of a vehicle to open the vehicle to enable him or her to examine the contents of the vehicle;
- (g) if the driver or person in charge of the vehicle fails or refuses to comply with a request made in terms of paragraph (f), open the vehicle and examine the contents of the vehicle and may for that purpose break any seal or locking device;
- (h) impound a vehicle which is reasonably suspected of being or having been used for unauthorised transport;

[Para. (h) substituted by s. 14 (b) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

- (i) impound goods which are reasonably suspected to have been conveyed contrary to the Act or an agreement;
- (j) direct the driver of a vehicle referred to in paragraphs (h) and (i) to deliver the vehicle and the goods to the nearest police station;
- (k) enter any premises to investigate any reasonably suspected contravention of the Act or an agreement, as contemplated in section 2 (1), and whilst on the premises, he or she may—

- (i) question any person who is reasonably believed to possess information which might lead to the conclusion of investigations;
- (ii) request delivery of and examine any document which is reasonably believed to relate to the commission of an offence;
- (iii) seize or make copies of any document referred to in paragraph (ii); or
- (iv) question any person in relation to a document referred to in paragraph (ii).

(2) A road transport inspector must—

- (a) issue a notice, as prescribed, if any documentation has been confiscated under subsection (1);
- (b) after opening a vehicle and examining the contents as provided for in subsection (1) (g) indicate in a prescribed certificate that the vehicle has been opened and that the contents have been examined in terms of subsection (1) (g); and
- (c) deliver the goods or the vehicle which has been impounded to a police officer.

(3) The powers conferred under subsection (1) (k) do not authorise a road transport inspector to enter private dwelling premises unless the owner of the premises consents to the entry or unless a court order authorising such entry has been obtained.

(4) A person questioned or required to furnish information under subsection (1) (k) is entitled to the privileges to which a person testifying in a court of law would be entitled to.

(5) A vehicle which is impounded in terms of subsection (1) (h) and goods which have been impounded in terms of subsection (1) (i) must be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, and the provisions of the Constitution.

39. Functions of road transport inspectors.—(1) The road transport inspectors must—

- (a) enforce the provisions of this Act;
- (b) enforce the provisions of any other legislation that confers certain rights and duties upon them; and
- (c) support the Board and the Regulatory Committee in the performance of their functions.

(2) The Road Transport Inspectorate must from time to time, as determined by the Regulatory Committee and in the prescribed format, submit to the Regulatory Committee a report which contains—

- (a) law enforcement information on a route basis;
- (b) general information on traffic flows and tendencies; or
- (c) any other such matters as may be prescribed.

40. Offences and penalties.—(1) A person who—

- (a) undertakes cross-border road transport without the required permit;
- (b) undertakes or allows cross-border road transport to be undertaken contrary to the conditions or requirements of a permit;
- (c) undertakes cabotage without the required permit;
- (d) undertakes cabotage contrary to the provisions of a permit;

- (e) being a permit-holder or the agent or employee of a permit-holder, enables a person who does not hold a permit, to use the permit-holder's permit;
- (f) applies for or obtains a permit knowing that another permit has already been issued to another person or another legal person in relation to the same vehicle;
- (g) with the intent to deceive, forges, alters, defaces, mutilates or adds to a permit;
- (h) gives false information when required to supply information in terms of this Act;
- (i) knowing that any writing is not a permit or document issued under this Act, utters or uses such writing or other document for the purposes of this Act;
- (j) knowing that any permit or other document issued under this Act has been altered, defaced, mutilated or added to, uses it for the purposes of this Act;

- (p) being a permit-holder fails to comply with any of the duties of a permit-holder as set out in this Act;
- (q) being the driver or the permit-holder fails to ensure that a permit which relates to a particular vehicle is kept in such vehicle;
- (r) being the driver fails to carry a consignment note or passenger list, as the case may be, at all times in a readily accessible place on the vehicle concerned;
- (s) being a permit-holder fails, within 30 days after the expiry of a permit or after the number of journeys on the permit has been completed, to submit the permit and consignment note or passenger list, as the case may be, to the Regulatory Committee;
- (t) with the intent to deceive, prepares any document for use in connection with cross-border road transport containing an incorrect description, knowing that description to be incorrect;
- (u) fails to apply for a duplicate permit in the case of a damaged or illegible permit;
- (v) fails to affix or keep affixed a distinguishing mark on any vehicle as prescribed;
- (w) fails within 30 days of any material change in regard to the information contained in the application form to notify the Regulatory Committee;
- (x) fails, within seven days of receipt of the notice by the Regulatory Committee, to submit the permit by registered post or by hand to the Regulatory Committee;
- (y) is the registered owner of a vehicle and allows cross-border road transport or cabotage without a permit;

[Para. (y) substituted by s. 15 (a) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

- (z) fails to comply with the provisions of sections 25 (9) and 30 (6);
- (zA) cedes, alienates, hires out or hires the authority conferred by a permit in contravention of section 47 (7);

[Para. (zA) substituted by s. 15 (b) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

- (zB) contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this Act if such contravention or failure is not elsewhere declared an offence,

[Para. (zB) added by s. 15 (c) of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

is guilty of an offence and liable upon conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

41. Forfeiture.—(1) The court convicting any person of an offence under this Act involving the undertaking of unauthorised transport may declare the vehicle used and any freight conveyed on it without authority, or the convicted person's rights in such vehicle or freight, to be forfeited to the State: Provided that such declaration does not affect any rights which any person other than the convicted person may have to the vehicle or freight in question, if it is proved that such other person—

- (a) could not reasonably be expected to have known or had no reason to suspect that the said vehicle was being or would be used for unauthorised transport or that he or she could not prevent such use; or
- (b) where the person knowing that the person intended to use the vehicle for unauthorised transport could not have reasonably prevented such use.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 16 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(2) Section 35 (4) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, applies with reference to any forfeiture under subsection (1).

42. Evidential matters.—(1) Any document which purports to be a permit issued under this Act, or a copy of such a permit certified as a true copy by a person who purports to be an officer of the Regulatory Committee or an officer of the competent authority of any other state with which an agreement referred to in section 2 (1) has been concluded, which issued the original permit, is on its production by any person in any prosecution under this Act, admissible in evidence and is adequate proof that it is such a permit which has been validly issued under this Act, or that it is a true copy of such a permit, as the case may be, and that every statement contained in it is correct, unless the contrary is proved.

(2) Any document which states that a vehicle described in it is, under the relevant South African law relating to the registration of vehicles or the similar law of a state with which the Republic has concluded an agreement in terms of section 2 (1), registered in the name of a person named in it, and which purports to have been issued by the authority charged with the registration of vehicles under the said law at the place where such vehicle is registered under it, is on its production by any person in any prosecution under this Act, admissible in evidence and is adequate proof of the correctness of the statements contained in it, unless the contrary is proved.

(3) Whenever in any proceedings the question arises whether a permit has been issued or a vehicle been registered under the law of any state with whom an agreement referred to in section 2 (1) has been concluded thereunder, a document, purporting to be an affidavit made by a person who in that affidavit alleges that he or she is a person upon whom the law in question confers the power to or imposes the duty to issue permits or register vehicles and that he or she has issued the permit or registered the vehicle or that he or she has satisfied himself or herself that the permit has been issued or that the vehicle has been registered under that law, is prima facie proof that such permit has been issued or that such vehicle has been registered.

43. Jurisdiction.—A magistrate’s court has jurisdiction to try any case with regard to an offence as contemplated in this Act and to impose any penalty in connection therewith.

44. Limitation of liability.—(1) Any person in the employ of the Board, is not personally liable for any damage caused by reason of any act done or omitted to be done in good faith by that person.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 17 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(2) The permit-holder or any employee of such permit-holder who is in charge of the vehicle to which such permit relates, is not liable by reason of any act done in good faith by such permit-holder or employee in accordance with any condition or requirement contained in that permit, relating to the transport of passengers in such a vehicle or any portion of it.

45. Points demerit system.—(1) The Minister, in consultation with the Board may, subject to subsection (2), devise a points demerit system, based on contraventions of this Act and of the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 (Act No. 93 of 1996), and may devise such penalties as may be prescribed.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 18 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

(2) The Minister must publish his or her intention of devising a points demerit system in the Gazette and allow three months for comment on the proposals.

46. Co-operation between Board and cross-border road transport industry.—The Board may, on the prescribed guidelines, make recommendations to the Minister aimed at incrementally introducing appropriate levels of self-regulation for the cross-border road transport industry.

46A. Special emergency measures.—(1) The Minister may, after consulting the Regulatory Committee, the Member of the Executive Council of the relevant province responsible for public transport and the South African Police Services, by notice in the Gazette, declare an area in which the special measures provided for in this section will apply, where he or she is of the opinion that this is necessary to normalize the situation in the area characterised by violence, unrest or instability.

(2) The Minister may make regulations providing that the operation of any specified permit is, or all permits are, temporarily suspended in so far as they authorise cross-border road transport or cabotage in such an area or part thereof, or on a specified route or routes in that area, for a period not exceeding 21 days.

(3) Regulations under subsection (2) may provide that the contravention thereof constitute an offence and may prescribe penalties in respect thereof.

(4) Before making regulations under subsection (2), the Minister must cause a notice to be published in the Gazette or in a newspaper circulating in the declared area, stating—

- (a) a brief description of the nature and purpose of the intended action;
- (b) the period for which the proposed regulations will be in force;
- (c) that interested or affected persons may request reasons for the proposed regulations;
- (d) that any interested or affected persons may make representations;
- (e) the time within which representations may be made, which may not be less than 24 hours;
- (f) the address to which representations must be submitted; and

(g) the manner in which representations may be made.

(5) The Minister must consider any representations received under subsection (4) before making regulations under subsection (2).

[S. 46A inserted by s. 19 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

PART 9 DUTIES OF PERMIT-HOLDER

47. General duties.—(1) The permit-holder must within 30 days of any change in relevant information notify the Chief Executive Officer thereof.

(2) The permit-holder must within 30 days of the lapsing of a registration certificate of a mechanically propelled vehicle, furnish the Regulatory Committee with a new registration certificate or a certified copy thereof.

(3) A permit-holder must at all times ensure that any vehicle being used for the transport of goods or passengers—

- (a) is a fit, proper and suitable vehicle in regard to the route, the goods or passengers concerned, and the circumstances in which the transport is undertaken;
- (b) is in a fit, proper and roadworthy condition in terms of the requirements of the road traffic legislation of the Republic and the state or states, as the case may be, that the vehicle will enter in terms of the provisions of the permit;
- (c) is used with appropriate safety limits, precautions and requirements regarding the route, circumstances, commodity or persons being conveyed, the vehicle or the immediate public interest;
- (d) does not exceed the permissible overall length as determined by the road traffic legislation of the Republic and the state or states, as the case may be, that the vehicle will enter in terms of the provisions of the permit;
- (e) does not exceed the permissible authorised gross vehicle mass or other vehicle dimensions as determined by the road traffic legislation of the Republic and the state or states, as the case may be, that the vehicle will enter in terms of the provisions of the permit; and
- (f) is not dangerous or unsafe or is not operated in a manner that is dangerous or unsafe.

(4) In order to comply with the requirements of this section, the permit-holder must maintain adequate and appropriate resources, drivers, personnel and facilities for the control, administration, maintenance, operation and storage of all vehicles recorded on the permit.

(5) The permit-holder must ensure that a driver of any vehicle being used for the transport of goods or passengers at all times—

- (a) keeps a permit and, in the case of the transport of goods the consignment note, and in the case of the transport of passengers a passenger list, in a readily accessible place on the vehicle, to be produced upon request by a road transport inspector;
- (b) holds a valid driver's licence in terms of the road traffic legislation of the Republic and the state or states, as the case may be, that the vehicle will enter in terms of the provisions of the permit in respect of the vehicle he or she is driving;
- (c) holds a valid public or professional driving permit in accordance with the provisions of the road traffic legislation of the Republic and the state or states, as the case may be, that the vehicle will enter in terms of the provisions of the permit; and

- (d) complies with the provisions of any road traffic legislation of the Republic and with the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, in respect of a summons or notice to appear in court for an offence committed within the course and scope of the employment of the driver with the permit-holder.

(6) All holders of permits which are valid for more than one year, must submit to the Regulatory Committee annually, together with the registration certificate mentioned in subsection (2)—

- (a) a valid roadworthy certificate for the vehicle;
- (b) where it is a condition of the permit that the holder must purchase insurance, proof that such insurance is still in force in respect of the vehicle and that all premiums have been paid;
- (c) proof that other conditions of the permit are being met, if required by the Regulatory Committee; and
- (d) any other prescribed requirement,

failing which the permit shall lapse on the date of lapsing of such registration certificate and the holder must return it to the Chief Executive Officer within 10 days of such lapsing by delivering it by hand or by registered post.

[Sub-s. (6) added by s. 20 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

(7) The authority conferred by a permit may not—

- (a) be ceded or otherwise alienated by the holder of the permit, and no person may be a party to such a cession or alienation; or
- (b) be hired out by the holder of the permit or be hired by any other person, and any such cession, alienation or hiring of a permit shall be of no legal force or effect.

[Sub-s. (7) added by s. 20 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

48. Discontinuation of cross-border passenger road transport.—(1) A permit-holder cannot discontinue the transport of passengers unless 30 days' written notice has been given to the Chief Executive Officer delivered by hand or by registered post: Provided that the Chief Executive Officer may authorise the permit-holder to discontinue the transport of passengers within a shorter period.

(2) A permit-holder must within 10 days of a notice in terms of subsection (1) return the permit to the Chief Executive Officer by delivering it by hand or by registered post.

(3) If a permit-holder suspends the service of passenger transport for longer than 14 days, he or she must within 48 hours of such suspension or the resumption of the service inform the Chief Executive Officer in writing by delivering such notice by hand or by registered post.

49. Return of consignment notes and passenger lists.—(1) The permit-holder with a permit authorising an unlimited number of journeys must return by hand or registered post to the Chief Executive Officer, in the case of transport of goods the completed consignment notes and in the case of the transport of passengers the completed passenger lists, not later than 30 days after the end of each calendar month.

(2) The permit-holder with a permit authorising a specified number of journeys must return by hand or registered post to the Chief Executive Officer, in the case of transport of goods the consignment notes, and in the case of the transport of passengers the passenger lists 30 days after the expiry of the permit.

(3) If a permit-holder, referred to in subsection (1) did not transport goods or passengers, as the case may be, during any calendar month under authority of such permit, that permit-holder must not later than 30 days after the end of the calendar month, notify the Chief Executive Officer accordingly.

[S. 49 amended by s. 21 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

Wording of Sections

PART 10 PROCEDURAL MATTERS

50. Minute keeping by Board and Regulatory Committee.—(1) The Chairperson of the Board and the Regulatory Committee must cause minutes to be kept of each meeting of the Board and the Regulatory Committee respectively and must cause copies of such minutes to be circulated to all members of the Board or members of such Committee as the case may be.

(2) The minutes prepared in terms of subsection (1), when signed at a subsequent meeting of the Board or the Regulatory Committee by the person presiding thereat must, in the absence of proof or error therein, be deemed to be a true and correct record of the proceedings which they purport to minute and must, at any proceedings in terms of this Act or before a court of law or any tribunal or commission of inquiry, constitute prima facie evidence of the proceedings of the Board or the Regulatory Committee.

51. Regulations.—The Minister, after consulting the Board, may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, relating to—

- (a) the fee structure for permits and other fees;
- (b) the consignment notes and passenger lists; and
- (c) anything that must or may be prescribed in terms of this Act.

52. Transitional provisions.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), any permit authorising cross-border road transport which has been issued in terms of the Road Transportation Act, 1977 (Act No. 74 of 1977), or the Transport Deregulation Act, 1988 (Act No. 80 of 1988), must remain in force until such date as it lapses, or the number of journeys allocated under such permit has been used.

(2) All permits authorising cross-border road transport issued by the National Transport Commission in terms of the Road Transportation Act, 1977, and with a validity period exceeding 12 months will lapse within six months after the entry into force of this Act: Provided that the holder of such a permit may reapply to the Regulatory Committee for the granting of a permit in terms of this Act.

(2A) All permits and operating licences issued by the National Transport Commission, local road transportation boards and operating licensing boards in terms of the Road Transportation Act, 1977 (Act No. 74 of 1977), the National Land Transport Transition Act, 2000 (Act No. 22 of 2000), or provincial legislation contemplated in the definition of “replacing provincial law” in section 1 of the lastmentioned Act, which authorise or purport to authorise cross-border road transport and with a validity period exceeding 12 months, lapse within six months after the entry into force of section 25 of the Cross-Border Road Transport Amendment Act, 2008: Provided that the holder of such a permit or operating licence may apply to the Regulatory Committee for the granting of a permit in terms of this Act.

[Sub-s. (2A) inserted by s. 22 of Act No. 12 of 2008.]

(3) Any prosecution of an offence committed under the Road Transportation Act, 1977, which had commenced prior to the entry into force of this Act, or any appeal, application or proceedings in or in respect of such a prosecution, must be continued and concluded as if the provisions of the Road Transportation Act, 1977, had at all relevant times been in operation.

(4) (a) No provision of this Act affects proceedings pending in a court of law at the commencement of this Act, and such proceedings may be continued and concluded in all respects as if this Act had not been passed.

(b) Proceedings are for the purposes of this section deemed to be pending at the commencement of this Act—

- (i) in the case of civil proceedings, if a summons has been issued, but judgment has not been given;
- (ii) in the case of criminal proceedings, if the accused has pleaded but judgment has not been given and sentence has not been imposed.

(5) No provision of this Act affects the previous operation of any law which has been repealed, or anything duly done or suffered under any law so made applicable or repealed.

(6) No provision of this Act affects any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any law so made applicable or repealed.

(7) Any provision contained in any other law pertaining to cross-border transport, that is inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, is deemed to have been amended to the extent of the inconsistency thereof.

53. Partial repeal of Act 74 of 1977, and savings.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Road Transportation Act, 1977, is hereby repealed in so far as it relates to cross-border transport.

(2) Despite subsection (1)—

- (a) all appeals in terms of the Road Transportation Act, 1977, which immediately before the commencement of this Act were pending before or lodged with the National Transport Commission in existence under section 2 of the Transport Deregulation Act, 1988 (Act No. 80 of 1988), will be disposed of by that Commission as provided for in the Road Transportation Act, 1977, as if the Road Transportation Act, 1977, had not been repealed;
- (b) the provisions of sections 8 (1A), (2) and (3) and 9 (1) and (2) of the Road Transportation Act, 1977, will be applied, subject to the changes necessary in the context and in so far as those provisions are not inconsistent with this Act, with regard to all appeals brought in terms of section 34 (2) (b) of this Act.

Wording of Sections

54. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act is called the Cross-Border Road Transport Act, 1998, and comes into operation, subject to subsection (2), on a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.

(2) Different parts or sections of this Act may be brought into effect on different dates.

Schedule 1

Determination by lot for purposes of section 7 (2) (c):

1. Upon having appointed the not more than eight other members in terms of section 5 (2) (c) of this Act, the Minister must forthwith proceed, in an open and transparent manner, to determine by lot, as required by section 7 (2) (c), which four of such eight members must vacate their offices upon the expiry of 18 months after their appointment, for which purpose the Minister must be the person designated to conduct the lot.

2. The Minister must thereupon ensure that the name of each one of the eight members is written on a separate piece of paper of equal size and identical shape and colour.
 3. The Minister must thereafter display the eight pieces of paper contemplated in paragraph 2, to every person who is present at the place where the lot is being conducted and who is desirous of inspecting any such piece of paper. The Minister must thereafter fold each such piece of paper in such a manner that the name thereon is not visible, and place all such pieces in an empty container.
 4. The Minister must thereupon appoint an impartial person to draw four pieces of paper from the said container.
 5. The designated person must thereafter shake the container in such a manner as to thoroughly mix the pieces of paper therein, and must hold such container in such a position that the drawer is unable to see the pieces of paper inside.
 6. The drawer must thereafter draw four pieces of paper from such container and hand them to the Minister without unfolding any of them.
 7. The Minister must then unfold each of the four pieces of paper handed to him or her as contemplated in paragraph 6, read out the names written thereon and display every such piece of paper to every person who is present at the place where the lot is being conducted and who is desirous of inspecting the same.
 8. The four persons whose names have been so drawn must vacate their offices as members 18 months after the date of their appointment as such.
